

Family Literacy Day

Family Literacy Day will be celebrated on Tuesday, October 31st. Families are welcome to come to school at arrival time and read with their children until 10:30 a.m. Students may wear book character costumes to school, but should wear a change of clothes under their costume for after the family reading time. Students must bring the book to match their character costumes. No weapons of any kind will be permitted. Please RSVP so that we can expedite your process for securely checking into the school. We look forward to seeing you on October 31st!
